of the Chicago convention, and denomicing the democratic decisions that to the victors belong the spoils, and promising firm support to a civil service reform condidate, also demanding a candidate of staintess public record, who will not put the party on the defensive.

A ballot for delegate was then taken and the result sancunced immediately after recess, as follows: Whole number of votes, 1,060; necessary for a choice, 35t. George F. Hoar, 769; Charies R. Codman, 656; John E. Sanford, 675; Julius H. Scelys, SSI. The remaining votes were distributed among ten candidates. The following were unanimously chosen alternates: L. T. Stone, James M. Barker, Chas. Allen and Robert R. Bishop.

The platform was unanimously adopted on motion of Boutwell. It is as follows: First—Steadfast adherence to the distinctive principles of the republican party. Second—Honest currency; we congratulate the country and the administration upon the success of resumption and the unitoration of confidence under the able management of Secretary Sherman. Third—The invaluable towering ty of the national union over states.

Fourth—Free and honest elections, the rime of fraud at the public or in counting vote is intolerable.

Fifth—Grateful to President H-vyes for improving tome and methods of civil service, and invoke Congress to complete the work by necessary enactments to prevent a misuse of the public service.

Council Bluffs, Iows, 15.—An excursion party of 140 people, from Boston and adjoining points, and under the management of the Bev. D. Ordoway, arrived to-day over the Chicago and North sesters Hailway, and left over the Union Pacific for Salt Lake, San Francisco and other points. They are on an extended pleasure trip.

Sixth — Deplores sectional sammosity and services for the developer sectional sammosity and searnestly desire that the resources of all sections of the south, as well as the north, be developed and to that end a recognition of the equal rights of all, by all, is essential. Past controversice should not be revived for political effect.

Seven—All republicans should loyally support party candidates and demand that Massachusetts delegates use all proper clarts for the momination of a candidate with the requisite qualifications, who will have the approval of all patrictic citizens, and while not instructing the delegates, recommend George F. Edmunds as such patriot and states—man.
